

THE CLIMAX.

FRENCH TIPTON, Wm. G. WHITE.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 27, 1887.

Democratic Ticket.

FOR GOVERNOR,
SIMON B. BUCKNER,
OF Hart County.

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR,
JAMES W. HAYAN,
OF Kenton County.

FOR TREASURER,
JAMES W. TAYLOR,
OF Woodford County.

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL,
P. WATTS HARRIS,
OF Mercer County.

FOR AUDITOR,
FLETCHER HEWITT,
OF Harlan County.

FOR SUPERINTENDENT INSTRUCTION,
JOS. DESHA PICKETT,
OF Fayette County.

FOR REGISTER OF LAND OFFICE,
THOS. H. COBBETT,
OF McCracken County.

FOR THE LEGISLATURE,
A. T. CHENAULT.

For County Superintendent of Schools, MR. AMANDA T. MILLER.

Vote for Chenaunt and Democratic next Monday.

Don't forget Buckner, Betty and the Baby next Monday.

Mr. W. B. Gun, of Lee county, is the Democratic candidate for Representative from the district composed of the counties of Lee and Estill. His opponent is Mr.
Robert Hill, of Rea County. Mr.
Gun will probably be elected.

Judge F. T. Fox, Prohibition candidate for Governor, spoke at the Court-house on Friday afternoon to a small audience. The burden of his speech was that the Democratic and Republican parties are both wrong, and should be supplanted by the Prohibition party.

Hon. A. T. Chenaunt is the nominee of the Democratic party.
Will you vote for the nominee or will you bolt? There are two ways of bolting, one by voting for the opponent and the other by not voting at all, being away from the polls, sick, too busy to go to the polls, going fishing, etc. This is a cowardly way of bolting.

Louisville will vote on the Local Option question next Monday. Both parties are active and each is claiming the victory.
The whiskey men do not hesitate to say they will use any amount of money necessary to carry the election. We don't doubt their intention of doing it, neither do we question their ability to do it.
Every large city has "votes for sale" and the price depends entirely upon the supply and demand, and Louisville is no exception to the rule in fact "she is built that way."

LOUISVILLE SOUTHERN.

The fact has been developed that the Louisville Southern cannot, according to its charter, ask Madison county to take stock in the road. The proposition now is to take stock to the amount of $250,000 in the Three Forks Rail road and consolidate the two roads.

MORE TURNPIKES.

All voters who go to the polls in Madison county on next Monday will be asked whether or not they are in favor of the County Court of Claims appropriating one thousand dollars per mile to all turnpike roads hereafter built in the county.

The question is one worthy of deep consideration. Nothing more improves a country than good roads. Madison county for a time appropriated $500 per mile, and when all the roads had been built that could be done with that amount of money, in addition to private subscription the sum per mile was increased to $750. A number of additional roads were built, and now it appears that more money must be applied if more roads are to be had. Let the appropriations be increased two hundred and fifty dollars, or to one thousand per mile, and several roads will be built in Union, Elliston, Yates, Glade, Poosy and Millon, with bright prospects in other precincts.

Better schools, better houses, better fences, better stock—better everything—follow the advent of turnpike roads. Why have a buggy or a carriage without a road over which to travel? But an improved means of travel demands other things equal to that improvement.
"But all these improvements cost money," says one, "and our land won't grow any better crops with turnpike roads through them or near them, than without the roads." The farmer's horses and farming implements improve along with all else he has, and the system of farming improves in proportion with other things. A man will suffer a rickety fence with the corners full of briars, and the field full of weeds, along a road when he would not do it on a turnpike. A man's pride advances his condition advances.
But the best illustration that turnpike roads improve a country is a comparison of a country that has no turnpikes with a country that has them.

PROHIBITION SPEAKING.

candidate for Governor, Squire J. M. Wood, Prohibition candidate for the Legislature, Mr. T.
B. Demaree, J. T. Browne, J. G.
Fee, B. S. Hunting and others are making Prohibition speeches over the county, and some one or more of them will fill the following appointments: College Hill, July 27th; Union, 28th; Kirkville, 29th; Berea, 30th. They have already spoken at Goodloe Chapel, Richmond, Farris Town, Speedwell and Waco.

MR. DEMAREE.

There must be some mistake about Mr. Demaree being the Democratic candidate for Representative from Grant county. He is certainly not at home prosecuting the canvass, but making Prohibition speeches about the country promiscuously. He spoke at College Hill, in this county, about ten days ago, and attacked the Democratic and Republican candidates. At the close of his speech Squire Douglas for the Democrats and Rev. Mr. Wilson for the Republicans jumped on the unspecific Prohibitionist and everlastingly execrated him.

A NEW CONSTITUTION.

Every voter, be he Democrat or Republican, should remember when he goes to the polls on next Monday, that the State of Kentucky needs a new constitution.
The present and third constitution is thirty-seven years old, and the changes incident to all those years demand a broader constitution. Slavery has been abolished, twenty new counties have been formed, wealth and population have greatly increased, and new ideas have multiplied. The average life of Kentucky's constitutions is thirty-two years. The present one is thirty-seven, and ought to go.

STATE FINANCES.

The Republican speakers are talking in the same strain with the Republican newspapers about the State's finances under Democratic rule. But the Democratic newspapers and speakers do not agree with them. From Gen.
Buckner's speech we learn that "the present debt of the State is $674,000—$174,000 of which will be due in 1896, and $500,000 in 1905. There is outstanding and unpaid $6,390 upon script and bonds, which are past due, and it is supposed that they have been lost and destroyed. Against this debt there was in the sinking fund, at the last report, $180, $69,32 in cash, 400 shares of the stock of the bank of Louisville, estimated at $20,450, and turnpike stocks estimated at a fair valuation at $500,000, making a total of $711,345.51 in excess of the entire indebtedness."

TO THE DEMOCRATS OF MADISON COUNTY.

On Monday next you are called upon to elect a man to represent Madison county in the next Legislature and to elect State officers for the next four years. This is the last opportunity we shall have of saying a word to you. You are all so constituted by nature that at times we become indifferent to subjects of the greatest moment.
We seem to forget that we have a duty, each and every one, to perform, a duty to self, to friends, to country, and to State at large.
We conceive it to be the duty of every man to vote. That question needs no argument—all admit it. You have no doubt considered the character of the several candidates of the Democratic ticket that has been presented you, and for which your support has been asked. If you need not comment. If you have not, let us say to you plainly and candidly they are, every one, men of character and ability; honest men, men who have the good of our firesides, our town, our county and our State at heart; and the backbone to perform their respective duties.

Our Republican friends are relying on Judge Fox and J. M. Wood, the Prohibition candidates, to help them out. They claim that they will get most of their support from Democrats. Why will they? Have Democrats less brains than Republicans? Can't Democrats see like Republicans that every vote cast for Fox and Wood is practically thrown away? Judge Fox and Mr. Wood are gentlemen, honest in their opinions and their purposes. We have not one word to say against either of them, but could either of them, if elected, or both of them do more for the cause of temperance than the Democratic party has done. By an act of the Legislature every precinct, town and county has the right to vote for or against the sale of liquors within its boundaries under what is usually known as the Local Option law. We have no objection to Temperance, we are not fighting that, but we do say that every ballot cast for Fox, Wood and Prohibition is thrown away and cast practically against the Democratic party in favor of Republicans. Our Republican friends realize this fully.
We heard not long ago one of the leading Prohibitionists who is also a Republican say he would not waste his vote on Prohibition and that he believed Fox would not get 25 votes from Republican ranks. That speech was not intended for Democratic ears, but if it could reach the ear of every Democrat in the county, be he Prohibition or not, we feel sure Fox would not get 25 votes.
What he does get must come from the Democratic ranks for the Republicans are determined not to waste their votes on him. Think of it calmly and quietly and we leave the result with you and your Democratic conscience.

THE PROMISE.

When General Simon Bolivar Buckner secures a young wife by promiss-ing her the mistress of the Governor's mansion, and the whole Democratic party of Kentucky gallantly comes to his aid in order that the promise may be fulfilled, it is useless to tell us that the days of Kentucky chivalry are past and gone.—Chicago Tribune.

DEMOCRATIC SPEAKING.

At 2 o'clock in the afternoon of Friday, July 29th, Democratic speeches will be made at the places and by the gentlemen indicated below: Daylesville—W. B. Smith, W. P.
Prewitt.

Waco—J. B. McCreary, Wm. Moberty.

Combs' Mill—A. T. Chenaunt.

Speedwell—C. H. Brock.

Berea—C. S. Powell, Joe E. Brunston.

Kingston—H. F. Turner, W. T.
Tevis.

Kirkville—J. D. Harris, J. A. Sullivan, W. L. Crutcher.

Reagan's Store—T. J. Scott, Sam Bignard.

Stringtown—A. J. Reed, J. R. Burnam.

College Hill—J. C. Chenaunt, C. L.
Searcy.

Also on Saturday July 30th, 1887 at 9 o'clock P. M. at the Court-house in Richmond by the Hon. Jas. B. Beck, and at 8 P. M. by Hon. James W.
Byran and C. J. Brunsdon. All are invited to be present.

RELIGIOUS.

The protracted meeting at the Baptist church, conducted by Rev. Green Clay Smith, closed last week.

B. F. Clay, of Georgetown, will preach at the Christian Church next Sunday morning and evening.

Rev. H. M. Rogers, of Hamilton, Mo., will preach at the Baptist church in Richmond on next Sunday morning and evening.

Rev. E. T. Williams has resigned his charge of the Central Christian Church, Cincinnati, after a pastorate of six years.
He and his wife will go in September as missionaries to China.

An exchange says: Sam Jones didn't draw as well at New Castle as he expected.
It may be that Kentucky people are getting tired of sensational preaching and sensational preachers. It is well if this is so.

Mr. James C. Rice was ordained a regular minister in the Baptist church, near Kington, on last Saturday. The church was composed of Rev. Green Clay Smith, Elder A. J.
Tribble, Rev. John C. Pond, J. I. J.
Wills. Mr. Rice is a son of Mr. F. M. Rice, Sr., near Richmond, and has for a number of years been a teacher—New Liberty in Owen county, Crab Orchard and Kington being points at which he taught. Elder Rice has accepted a call to the pastorate of Bethel church.

Rev. M. M. Bell, pastor of the colored Baptist Church, of Lexington, died in that city last week. He had been in the ministry upwards of thirty years during which time he baptized more than two thousand persons. Rev. Bell was universally respected and it was estimated that two thousand people attended his funeral. His funeral cortege was over a mile long, there being more than one hundred vehicles in the procession.

Because the people of New Castle did not show a willingness to swallow the slangy stuff dealt out by Sam Jones, and also refused to open their pocket books at his bidding, the reverend gentleman not only lost his temper, but indulged in expressions unworthy of any person who professes to be a teacher of Christianity.
Speakers of the Sam Jones class do more harm than good, and people who really desire to see the cause of religion prosper would do the proper thing to give the colluder a such ranting apostle—

THIN COLUMN.

The Millersburg correspondent of the Paris News is named Nedor. Seems to be the name the correspondent does Nedor rather name.

"A rat-killing match" was a big headline in a daily newspaper, one day last week. We'd like to have a box of that kind of matches.

Mr. B. Gun, the Democratic candidate for Representative in Estill and Lee counties, ought to come down here after the election and give Bill Rogers' bees that are making honey on the trees.

Squire Armer was called upon the other day to perform a marriage ceremony. He formed a couple at the Clerk's office, and proceeded to the ceremony.
"Do you promise to take this woman, whom you hold by the hand, for your lawful and wedded wife?" asked the Squire. "Why, law me, preacher, that's jess what I've come here for," shouted the man.

An elderly gentleman, who lives on the opposite side of the globe from Australia, has an intense aversion to puns, and he is equally averse to to-in-chev-ing. He has a son named Lewis, and Lewis, as well as the old man, is fond of tobacco.
The other day the father and son were seated near each other, when Lewis drew forth a plug of tobacco as big as an elephant's ear, and took a chew. He was about to return it to his pocket when the old gentleman said: "I want a chew too, Lew." Lewis replied: "Pa if you really want to chew to-in, I'll go down town and get you a supply." Then everybody laughed, and the old man looked mad as a greenwillow, and walked out. He said he didn't "want any tobacco neither."

AN ACT.

CHAPTER 12.

AN ACT for taking the sense of the people of this Commonwealth as to the necessity and expediency of revising the Constitution, and to provide for the election of citizens entitled to vote for Representatives within this State.

WHEREAS, Experience has pointed out the necessity of amending the Constitution and the expediency of calling a convention for that purpose; therefore

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky,

1. That at the next general election for Representatives to the General Assembly, it shall be the duty of the several sheriffs and other officers of election to open a poll for and make a return to the Secretary of State, for the time being, of the names of all citizens entitled to vote for Representatives who have voted at the said election for calling a convention for the purpose of re-adopting, amending or changing the Constitution.

2. That any sheriff or other returning officer failing to perform the duty imposed by first section of the act shall be subject to a fine of six hundred dollars ($600), to be recovered by indictment of the grand jury in any court having jurisdiction thereof, and shall, upon conviction of such failure, be removed from office by the court in which such conviction is had.

3. That for the purpose of ascertaining the number of citizens entitled to vote for Representatives within this State in the year 1887, there shall be furnished, as hereinafter provided, to the sheriffs and other officers of election, in which the officers of the election shall record the names of all citizens entitled to vote for Representatives within this State at the said election. The officers of the election shall be sworn to perform the duty imposed upon them by this act, and shall be subject to a fine of six hundred dollars ($600), to be recovered by indictment of the grand jury in any court
having jurisdiction thereof, and shall,
which such conviction is had.

4. That the purpose of ascertaining the number of citizens entitled to vote for Representatives within this
furnished, as hereinafter provided, to
the sheriffs and other officers of election, in which the officers of the election shall record the names of all citizens entitled to vote for Representatives within this State at the said election. The officers of the election shall
lars ($600), to be recovered by indictment of the grand jury in any court
having jurisdiction thereof, and shall,
which such conviction is had.

furnished, as hereinafter provided, to
the sheriffs and other officers of election, in which the officers of the election shall record the names of all citizens entitled to vote for Representatives within this State at the said election. The officers of the election shall
lars ($600), to be recovered by indictment of the grand jury in any court
having jurisdiction thereof, and shall,
which such conviction is had.

furnished, as hereinafter provided, to
the sheriffs and other officers of elec-
tion shall record the names of all citizens entitled to vote for Representatives within this State at the said election. The officers of the election shall
lars ($600), to be recovered by indictment of the grand jury in any court
having jurisdiction thereof, and shall,
which such conviction is had.

furnished, as hereinafter provided, to
the sheriffs and other officers of elec-
tion shall record the names of all citizens entitled to vote for Representatives within this State at the said election. The officers of the election shall
lars ($600), to be recovered by indictment of the grand jury in any court
having jurisdiction thereof, and shall,
which such conviction is had.

furnished, as hereinafter provided, to
the sheriffs and other officers of elec-
tion shall record the names of all citizens entitled to vote for Representatives within this State at the said election. The officers of the election shall
lars ($600), to be recovered by indictment of the grand jury in any court
having jurisdiction thereof, and shall,
which such conviction is had.

furnished, as hereinafter provided, to
the sheriffs and other officers of elec-
tion shall record the names of all citizens entitled to vote for Representatives within this State at the said election. The officers of the election shall
lars ($600), to be recovered by indict-
ment of the grand jury in any court
having jurisdiction thereof, and shall,
which such conviction is had.

furnished, as hereinafter provided, to
the sheriffs and other officers of elec-
tion shall record the names of all citizens entitled to vote for Representatives within this State at the said election. The officers of the election shall
lars ($600), to be recovered by indict-
ment of the grand jury in any court
having jurisdiction thereof, and shall,
which such conviction is had.

furnished, as hereinafter provided, to
the sheriffs and other officers of elec-
tion shall record the names of all citizens entitled to vote for Representatives within this State at the said election. The officers of the election shall
